ABOUT US

The 6th Singapore International Non-Destructive Testing Conference and Exhibition, organised by the Non-Destructive Testing Society (Singapore), will be held on 10–11 March 2027 at the Marina Bay Sands Exhibition and Convention Centre, alongside the 6th Asian Quantitative Infrared Thermography Conference.

The conference will present the latest advancements, research, and practical applications in non-destructive testing (NDT), featuring keynote sessions from global industry experts. An accompanying exhibition will showcase cutting-edge technologies & equipment, bridging research and real-world applications.

Focused on Industry 4.0, the event highlights next-generation inspection technologies & provides a platform for professionals worldwide to connect, exchange ideas, and drive innovation under the theme “The Silent Guardian: Ensuring Infrastructure Safety and Sustainability with Next-Gen NDE.”

WHY SPONSOR ?

Attendees Profile

The past conferences have been successful in attracting hundreds of attendees from many countries within ASEAN and Globally

40% Asian Countries (besides Singapore)

20% Europe and Americas

40% Others Including Singapore

WHY BECOME A SPONSOR?

The conference branding provides an excellent platform for academics, professionals and researchers to network with corporate/industry players in the field of non-destructive testing. Through the conference, sponsors would be able to reach to their target audience & create brand awareness

EXTENSIVE PROMOTION

Announcement of SINCE 2025 will be made to its proprietary database comprising industries, academics, professionals, and researchers (worldwide) in the field of non-destructive testing. All potential attendees are directed to the conference website to get information on the conference, submit their research paper, register for the conference, check programmed updates as the conference progresses.

ONSITE PROMOTION

Sponsors will be featured on the website & hyperlinks to sponsors' corporate websites which will certainly help to increase brand awareness amongst the target audience. Should you be taking up an exhibition booth space at the conference, you can display and showcase your product and make direct sales pitch to the attendees. Nothing beats hands-on trial of the product and the face-to-face interaction with the sales personnel representing the company.

SELF BRANDING

Exhibition sponsor can present only a paper but not included in the conference package and not access to conference, social events, and activities. This further provides opportunities to network, socialize and foster business relationship with the experts and decision-makers

COMMITMENT

The growth of the Singapore NDT industry is also dependent on the financial support of our industrial partners. As a sponsor or an exhibitor at the conference you can demonstrate your ongoing commitment to the NDT Community here in Singapore.
